Silence is Broken

How might we release ourselves from its obligatory gestures and unreflective conceits.

Mstislav Rostropovich: Cellist, Teacher, Legend

It might be said that the intense emotional ties which we observe in groups are quite sufficient to explain one of their characteristics - the lack of independence and initiative in their members, the similarity in the reactions of all of them, their reduction, so to speak, to the level of group individuals. Meredith King longs for escape.
